

Distinguished Professor Award
Sponsored by
The Center for Women and Gender
Tuesday, March 6th, 2012
2:30-4:00PM
Taggart Student Center Auditorium

Purpose:

The purpose of the Center for Women and Gender Distinguished Professor Award is to recognize the outstanding leadership of women full professors at Utah State University in their scholarly or creative work, or to recognize the leadership of women or men full professors at Utah State University who conduct research on gender issues. Nominated professors should serve as role models for all faculties. The awardee must present a public lecture on his or her work and its implications for the future. The lecture will be at 2:30pm on March 6th. Please be sure your nominee can be present. This $500 award is granted once every three years.

Nominations:

Nomination Materials Include:

1. Nominee's vita
2. A letter of recommendation from the nominator addressing the nominee's qualifications in the following criteria:
 - a. Leadership in their scholarly or creative discipline
 - b. Contributions to the advancement of women faculty and/or students
 - c. Leadership around women and/or gender issues
 - d. Mentorship and/or service as a role model to women
3. Any additional supporting materials that would be helpful to the award committee

Nomination materials need to be received by the Center for Women and Gender by February 1, 2012. You may either mail, e-mail, or bring your nomination to our office. Contact information is as follows:

Mail Address:

Center for Women and Gender
Utah State University
0186 Old Main Hill
Logan, UT 84322-0186

Office Location:

Center for Women and Gender
USU Taggart Student Center
Room 309
435-797-9222

E-mail: jamie.huber@usu.edu

DEADLINE: February 01, 2012