

Undergraduate Researcher of the Year

- Description: The Undergraduate Student Researcher of the Year is given each year to recognize and emphasize excellence in undergraduate research. Other scholarly activities may be considered in the selection process, but the main emphasis will be on research and contributions, with a secondary emphasis on GPA.
- Nomination Materials: A letter of nomination from department head or designated writer as described in Part 1 below.
- Due Date: Nominations are due to the Humanities and Social Sciences Dean's Office by noon on Monday, November 6, 2017. Portfolios are due from the three finalists only by Friday, December 8, 2017 (see below). If selected, a brief paragraph about the nominee and his/her accomplishments will be required.
- Part 1: A letter of support from the department head or designee, consisting of no more than two single-spaced pages, one inch margins, 12-point TR font.
- Part 2: A current C.V. and/or résumé, as appropriate, from the nominee.
- Part 3: Supporting material: Additional letters of support (not to exceed ten pages)
- Recognition: Will be recognized formally during the Student Showcase Celebration during April, the "Undergraduate Research Month."
