Paige Frame | Alumni Lunch Series

Watch

Listen

Working from home is not a recent change for alumna Paige Frame. As president of McKinnon-Mulherin, she's an expert when it comes to working from a home office because she's been doing it for years! Don't miss out on the advice she shares during her conversation with Outreach Coordinator Andrea DeHann, CHaSS Career Coach Joseph Banks, and many other participants listening in live from home.
