

The Value of an Inclusive Education | Alumni Lunch Series

03/02/2021

The Value of an Inclusive Education | Alumni Lunch Series

Watch

Listen

CHaSS is pleased to present a conversation with three prominent alumni working for organizations that employ and serve diverse populations.

- Charisse Bremond Weaver (BA Journalism '87)
President & CEO of the Brotherhood Crusade
- Tyrone E. Couey (BS History '71)
President of the National Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) Alumni Associations Foundation
- Michael McCullough (BS Political Science '84)
Executive Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer for the Miami Heat

Listen in as several alumni of color reflect on their time at USU and discuss its impact on their careers. This is a great opportunity to learn from their professional experiences and to consider how multicultural education affects students at USU.