

Ed Glatfelter Faculty Service Award

Description:

The Faculty Service Award will be given each year to recognize and emphasize excellence in service within the College of Humanities and Social Sciences. Other scholarly activity such as research and publication records may be considered in the selection process, but the main consideration will be on service, including that to the department, the college, the university, the community, and the professional world.

Nomination Materials:

1. A letter of nomination from the department head or designee, no more than two single-spaced pages, which addresses the criteria listed above.
2. A three-page narrative that demonstrates the candidate's qualifications for the award.
3. Abbreviated CV related to the awards criteria.

Due Date:

Nominations are due to the Humanities and Social Sciences Dean's Office by December 15.

Recognition:

Recognized at the College Awards Ceremony and will represent the college in the annual Robins Award competition.
