

Graduate Mentor of the Year

- Description: This award is intended to recognize faculty with a significant record of cumulative accomplishment focused on graduate mentorship. Nominations for this award occur at the department level.
- Criteria: Must be a current employee of USU or have retired within the past 12 months prior to submission.
- Nomination Materials:
1. A letter of nomination from the department head or designee, no more than two single-spaced pages, which addresses the criteria listed above.
 2. A three-page narrative that demonstrates the candidate's qualifications for the award.
 3. Abbreviated CV related to the awards criteria.
- Due Date: Nominations are due to the Humanities and Social Sciences Dean's Office by December 15.
- Recognition: Will be recognized at Research Week ceremonies including the Research Gala and the student research awards ceremony. Will also be recognized at the College Awards Ceremony.