

Graduate Student Instructor of the Year

- Description: The Graduate Student Instructor of the Year Award is given each year to recognize and emphasize excellence in graduate teaching. Other scholarly activities may be considered in the selection process, but the main emphasis will be on teaching duties performed and contributions made, with a secondary emphasis on GPA.
- Criteria:
1. Nominee must be a matriculated graduate student.
  2. Nominee must have been employed at least two semesters as a GRA, GTA, GGA, or GI.
- Nomination Materials:
1. A letter of nomination from the department head or designee, no more than two single-spaced pages, which addresses the criteria listed above.
  2. A three-page narrative that demonstrates the candidate's qualifications for the award.
  3. Abbreviated CV related to the awards criteria.
- Due Date: Nominations are due to the Humanities and Social Sciences Dean's Office by December 15.
- Recognition: Recognized at the College Awards Ceremony and the annual Robins Awards. Sponsored by the Graduate Student Senate.
