

Application for the Classics Tuition Scholarship

This application must be submitted by email to Business Manager Jeannie Sur (jeannie.sur@usu.edu) by February 10.

Purpose: The purpose of the Classics Tuition Stipend is to support USU Classics students who are taking both Greek and Latin language classes. Greek and Latin are difficult subjects, and students must put in a great deal of time and effort into these classes if they want to succeed. This tuition stipend is meant to reward those students who have made a commitment to studying both Greek and Latin.

In addition to this application form, students must submit a current academic transcript.

Please answer the following questions in three short (one paragraph) essays. You may answer on a separate sheet.

Name:

A number:

Email address:

1. Please list the Greek, Latin, and Classics courses you have taken, along with the semester and year, and the grades you received.
2. Please list the Greek, Latin, and Classics courses you are currently enrolled in, and the Greek, Latin, and Classics courses you intend to take while you are a student at USU.
3. Briefly describe your hopes and plans for the future, and explain how you see the study of Classics as possibly fitting in to your future plans. We do not expect a detailed blueprint here, just a general sense of how you see the study of Classics as fitting in to your future plans, whether you are planning to go on to graduate school in Classics or to teach Latin in high school, or you simply want to be able to tell your children stories from Classical Mythology.
