EXPERTISE

I am an English language instructor who has developed and taught English language skills courses at all proficiency levels, with an emphasis on intermediate to advanced English for Academic Purposes (EAP). I have been heavily involved in curriculum, materials, assessment, and program development. I've also designed and taught university courses in cultural exploration, global studies, and English linguistics. My professional interests are in enhancing learner autonomy and motivation through engaging questioning and the constructive use of emerging technologies.
