

CHaSS Reacts: DLI Teacher and Languages Grad student answers questions about life during the pandemic

04/21/2020

CHaSS Reacts: DLI Teacher and Languages Grad student answers questions about life during the pandemic

#CHaSSReacts: Q&A with Dual Immersion Language
Teacher and CHaSS Grad Student, Jana Quadros

The State of Utah holds a leading position worldwide in implementing Dual Language Immersion (DLI) programs. More than 40,000 K-12 students in Utah participate in programs teaching Spanish, Chinese, French, Portuguese, German, and Russian. In this video, DLI teacher Jana Quadros tells us about her challenges in maintaining students' target language proficiency during the times of Covid-19. Jana, originally from Brazil, is a DLI teacher as well as a student in Master of Second Language Teaching.

Share

Related Stories