Adventures in an exotic study abroad to Morocco

06/06/2018

Adventures in an exotic study abroad to Morocco

Peg Petrazelka and Rebecca Walton have led a team of students to Morocco during a study abroad. The best description of the adventure is in photographs, and here are some of the whole Morocco study abroad gang. The students visited such locations as Taroudant, Essouaria on the Atlantic coast and Kasbah Amridil, a 300-year-old kasbah near Skoura. Of course, what journey to Morocco is complete without a visit to Casablanca.

Share

Related Stories