

Embassy reception recognizes CHaSS connections with Peru

05/01/2018

The College of Humanities and Social Sciences has many ties to Peru that include research and volunteer work in the South American nation. That was the focus of a reception April 26 at the Embassy of Peru in Washington, D.C.

Dean Joe Ward and such professors as anthropologist Bonnie Glass-Coffin joined many CHaSS alumni, as well as Peruvian Ambassador Carlos Pareja and U.S. Rep. Chris Stewart (R-Utah).
