

Two USU social work students create resources sheet for people stuck in social isolation | Social Work

04/23/2020

Two USU social work students create resources sheet for people stuck in social isolation

USU Social Work Students Courtnie Eddington and Amanda Crosland

USU Social Work students Courtnie Eddington and Amanda Crosland were assigned a community project for their community engagement class, and decided to create many resources to help Cache Valley residents navigate unsure circumstances amid the COVID-19 pandemic.

Read the full story and find their list of resources.

Share

Related Stories